Recent Operations

By Paul Rardin

The Pahokee and Belle Glade foot ball game has been shifted from Fair Field in Pahokee to Belle Glade. The game will be played this afternoon on account of dim out regulations which have been scheduled to start at 3:30 p. m. It is the final game of the season.

Ordered men pickers are making money in the Lake Region before the price for oranges and lemons remains around 50¢. It is almost impossible for the pickers to enter a field for second picking any even at 50¢ and 60¢ per hamper.

The cherry diet will get under way in the Pahokee-Canal Point area next week when the processing plant of the Everglades Growers Cooperative starts up for the season. The first cherry to be cut in this area will come from the Belle Glade, Florida, and the Canal Point. The New York market is strong and local growers are expecting profitable returns on the season.

Homer Claus, former sales manager of the Everglades Fruit Growers at Belle Glade, has been employed by the Growers Cooperative as sales manager. Mr. Claus knows the country from one side to the other and will make a splendid addition to the Cooperative staff.

The huge plant of the Cooperative located at the Pahokee State Farmers Market, is ready to run and all is in readiness for the beginning of the season. The plant, which is owned by the Growers Cooperative, is located at the intersection of U. S. Highway 1 and the canal. The plant is a large four-story building with a large loading dock.

Merchants in the Glades have their Christmas merchandise on display. With fire and gas rationing it looks like they may get a rough season. Always they have had outstanding sales and the fact that they had to stop in larger cities. Today they are finding out that their local merchants have just as good merchandise as can be found in larger cities. The fire and gas rationing may prove profitable to both merchant and customer.

Customers in the Glades are urging that all Christmas cards be mailed under a three-cent stamp. This will save the post office from the loss of the cards. The cards should be mailed under a three-cent stamp. The cards should be mailed under a three-cent stamp.

Under 9am mail will be delivered with packages and carryover mail. The thousands of boys in the mail will be receiving packages and cards. Do your share to lighten the load and have the delivery securely and mailed at once if they are to reach their destination before the visit of Saint Nick.

Gas Tax Money Dwindles In 1942

Tallahassee, Dec. 3.—A reduction of approximately $4,000,000 in gasoline tax collections in Florida for 1942 as compared with 1941 was announced by Commissioner of Finance James M. Lewis. The 1941 sales totaled $23,300,000, which returned to the state $1,500,000. This was 29.3 percent less than returns for October, 1941, when sales of $29,350,000 returned $2,000,000.

The reduction in the 1942 gasoline tax collections is the result of the 10 percent increase in the tax rate. The tax rate was increased from 3.5 cents per gallon to 3.85 cents per gallon. The increase in the tax rate was intended to offset the increase in the cost of gasoline.

Annual Meeting Is Held On Wednesday By Boy Scout Group

Deputy Regional Scout Executive Speaks To Scouts & Parents

The Glades Boy Scout District, Belle Glade, Pahokee, South Bay and Canal Point, held its annual meeting and election of officers Wednesday night, in Pahokee at the Woman's Club, which was attended by approximately forty parents and friends of Scouting.

Those in attendance were privileged to hear a most interesting discussion of the value of Scouting in the present war crisis by the Deputy Regional Scout Executive, Gilbert Bush, of Allandale, Fla. He emphasized the large number of successful pilots and officers in the armed services who had been trained and educated in Scouting.

The highlight of the evening's program was the presentation of the coveted Eagle Scout Badge to Scout Monroe Papp of Fort St. Canals Point. Monroe recently completed the remaining seven of his twenty-one required merit badges and the presentation of the badge was made by the District Scout Executive, A. P. Patterson. The Scout Executive extended the privilege of pinning the badge on Monroe to Mrs. W. P. Pope, mother.

Reports of progress in the North Glades and South Glades districts were given by J. B. Cox, and J. A. James. The presentation of the North Glades district nominating committee, reported by Q. H. Harrison, chairman of the committee, presented Monroe with a letter case, and an Eagle Scout badge.

The following officers were nominated and elected for the North Glades District: J. B. Cox, chairman; C. L. Vaughan, vice chairman; C. L. Vaughan, secretary; C. L. Vaughan, treasurer; C. L. Vaughan, committee members; C. L. Vaughan, nominating committee members; C. L. Vaughan, nominating committee members.

Which Proves You Can Never Tell!

Key West, Dec. 3.—Lawrence Roy, 37, held have saved himself from a life of trouble if he had only known how it would turn out. Twice ordered by his draft board to report to Camp Eberhart, he left his home before it reached the mainland and on the last occasion hid in mangrove swamps several days before reporting to a Federal official. He pleaded guilty before Federal Judge J. W. Holland at Miami to draft evasion and was given a five year suspended sentence and placed on parole three years.

In addition, Roy was ordered to Camp Eberhart. He's back home now. Army physicians rejected him as physically unfit and placed him in class 4-F.

SEEK CO-OPERATION ON DIM OUT RULES

Members of the Pahokee-Canal Point Defense Council seek the full and wholehearted co-operation of all citizens in carrying out rules of the dim out which went into effect midnight, November 30.

One of the officials of the council said: "We sincerely hope that all persons will work with us in carrying out these rules. We believe that citizens in this section will co-operate to the point where it will never be necessary to mention the penalties which apply in case of infraction of the rules."

Members of council, under direction of the army, are making every effort to acquaint the public with the rules. Your co-operation will be appreciated.

Orange Bowl Game Between Alabama And Boston College

Outstanding Teams To Furnish Entertainment For Visitors

Football, featuring a colorful one-day program for which consideration of funds for war effort will be the watchword, is first on the list of events scheduled for the annual Orange Bowl Festival in Miami. The powerful Alabama team will meet the one-defeated team from Boston College.

Every activity is to be centered at the Orange Bowl, where two of the nation's outstanding college football teams will meet in a game program, and an elaborate entertainment-halves show on the field will be staged.

The following officers were nominated and elected for the South Glades District: J. B. Cox, chairman; C. L. Vaughan, vice chairman; C. L. Vaughan, secretary; C. L. Vaughan, treasurer; C. L. Vaughan, committee members; C. L. Vaughan, nominating committee members; C. L. Vaughan, nominating committee members.

South Bay Voters Will Choose Mayor On Tuesday, Dec. 8

R. D. Hawkins, William Jeffries Are The Candidates

R. D. Hawkins will oppose William Jeffries for mayor in the South Bay election to be held in South Bay on Tuesday, Dec. 8. S. M. McAllister, chief of police, will be re-elected without opposition since no other citizen of the newly incorporated town qualified against him.

Five councilmen will be elected. Candidates are: A. B. Barnes, W. G. Brown, S. J. Fisher, O. P. Rogers and Frank E. Willis. Since five places are to be filled on the council and only five candidates have qualified they are assured of election.

Cinematic Chatter . . .

—By MALCOLM MILLAR—
What The Movies Have To Offer During The Coming Week

This week I find myself confronted with some doubtful and some very good shows. I may as well lead off with an ace in the hole. "Footlight Serenade," coming to the Edison on Sunday-Monday, with John Payne, Betty Grable, Victor Mature and Jane Wyman leading the parade of stellar stars in a delightful spectacle of feminine charm, garnered with sparkling wise cracks and unfeigned, ditties that is bound to register favorably with all types of cinema fans. Of course there's a story—and a good one too. Victor Mature, a handsome prize-fighting champion, is engaged to appear in a Broadway musical show "Down and Out," produced by James Gleason. To the consternation of Gleason, Mature immediately takes charge, hiring chorus girls, suggesting dance routines and changing the lyrics on the songs. Well there is a merry makeup, during which Victor has a realistic fight with Jack Rogers, former heavyweight contender. You'll enjoy every moment of this one.

Tuesday's show is also a bonny. It stars Henry Fonda, Lucille Ball, Barton MacLane and Eugene Pallette. It's titled "The Big Street" and was written by a man who knows New York life as well as he knows the palm of his hand, Damon Runyon.

Story brief, tells of a bus boy who is very much in love with the toast of Broadway. In an accident she is crippled and must be sent to Florida for her health. Henry, the bus-boy, pushes her South in a wheel chair. Trouble develops and he leaves her, but feeling sorry for the girl he returns.

Lacking money to carry on with the added burden he attempts burglary and stumbles across a smuggling ring. Action develops fast from this point and ends when the gal attempts a final come-back as a dancer and dies in Henry's arms. It has suspense, action, romance and a story that will remain with you for a long time.

For the Wednesday/Thursday set-up I choose "Enemy Agents Meet Ellery Queen," starring William Hopper, Margaret Lindsay, with Charles Grapewin and a great cast of featured players. Story is suspenseful with plenty on the action side. I'm sure you'll enjoy every moment of this delightful thriller.

I want very much for "Desperate Cargo," starring Paul Henry and Carol Hughes. This is story of the ship, with robbery in the air and plenty on the action. Some of the show will be a little "far fetched" so to speak, and there won't be too much on acting ability, but for those fans who love the unbelievable it will prove very entertaining.

For the Friday flickerettes they have billed "King of the Zombies." It stars Dick Purcell and Joan Woodbury. I must say it is a morbid thing that will cause the skin on your scalp to crawl to the back of your neck. Anything that depicts the dead coming to life gives me the "creeps." I don't believe dead folks can hurt you, but I'm sure they can make you hurt yourself.

"Careful, Soft Shoulders" would be my choice of these two shows. It stars lovely Virginia Bruce and James Ellison. Don't let the title fool you—it's not a titterbugle, it's a slam bang action show if there ever was one.

In this show Virginia becomes a kidnapped Marti Harn, after she becomes indignant over the "sneak raid" on Pearl Harbor. She becomes involved with Nazi agents and has to escape by water—which she does right handily. Of course there is romance—always is when a beautiful gal like Virginia is in a show and in this one Ellison is the heart throb. Yes, I really believe you'll like it.

Well, it looks as if the management of the old Prince corner has deserted the members of the Six Shooters Club—Bat, wait a minute—They have merely stopped our trips to the West every Saturday to present one of the outstanding action shows of the year, "Danger in The Pacific," starring Dick Foran and Leo Carrillo, with a cast of favorites. This is a wettry story, but she is a honey, so far as thrills are concerned. So, members of the club, stable your bicycles for the time being and headle down to ya old movie hall, come this Saturday, to witness one of the best pop-eyed adventure stories you've seen in some time.

Yeah, Nyoka gets out of another jam in her latest chapter, but right into another one before the thing is over with. She's a well, we are selling War Bonds and home front stuff. Come along with you at the movies—MALL.

HIGH SCHOOL NEWS

Louise Sims, an active member of the Senior Class, was born January 5, 1928. She hails from Georgia, but has spent most of her life in Florida.

She has held the office of secretary of the Freshman Class, vice president of the Sophomore and Junior classes, and is reporter of the Senior class. She would like to take up journalism and is getting a fine start by her work in gathering news for the entire school.

Her favorite food is steak, her favorite hobby dancing, and her favorite song "At Last."

Ernest Boland, one of the senior class football heroes was born May 1, 1924 in Columbus, Georgia. Ernest is an active member of the P. E. A. and has done well in that work. Unknown to most people he is a very good cartoonist.

His favorite food is spaghetti and meatballs. His favorite song, "Johnny Doughboy Found a Rose in Ireland" and his favorite pastimes are hunting and fishing.

The Seniors have again contributed to the football team. The latest contributions are Howard Sims, Gene Pickren and Warren Cochran.

Warren Cochran plays wing back. Gene Pickren plays right end. Howard Sims is a colorful wing back being light and fast. All three of them played their first game with the present team at Punta Gorda Friday night.

Friday afternoon will bring down the curtain on the foot ball careers of 1943 Seniors. Nine boys of the Senior class have given their efforts for the Blue Devil team.

Glyn Carr, quarter back; Edwin Cowart, tackle and guard; Danco Williams, center; Reed Collins, fullback; Ernest Boland, tackle; Gene Pickren, right end; Howard Sims, halfback; Warren Cochran, halfback; Hilburn Murphy, halfback—these boys will go out there fighting Friday afternoon with the thought of leaving their names in good standing.

Second year men are: Glyn Carr, Edwin Cowart and Hilburn Murphy; third year men are: Damon Walker, Ernest Boland and Reed Collins; the remaining ones are out for their first season.

Milk Shortage Looms In Florida

Gainesville, Dec. 3.—A critical milk shortage loomed in Florida Tuesday, as increased consumption by the tens of thousands of service men in the State and a labor shortage in the dairy industry combined to widen the gap between supply and demand.

Chief Inspector John H. Scott of the State Department of Agriculture's milk division, holding little hope of alleviation of the situation for the duration, said Florida imported 264,000 gallons of milk from other states last September and October in contrast with last year when it was virtually self-sufficient and imported only 80 gallons.

Milk now is being shipped into the state from Tennessee, New York, New Jersey, Indiana, Pennsylvania and as far away as Minnesota, he said, but even this supply may dwindle later because of approaching cold weather.

Scott said the chief cause of the shortage was the increased demand for the large numbers of service men moved into Army and Navy establishments in the state, but that loss by the dairy industry of key men to the armed forces and war industries and gasoline and tire rationing also were substantial factors. New draft regulations providing for deferment of agricultural workers should help the labor situation, he added.

A shortage of ice cream in the near future, because of heavy demands by the military for powdered milk and evaporated milk for shipment overseas, was predicted by Scott.

A. P. Ashby, Jr., of Jacksonville has resigned as assistant state auditor, it was announced last week by state auditor Bryan Williams. Mr. Ashby will become director of the finance and accounts department of the State Welfare Board.

Tom G. Lee, president of the Florida State Dairyman's Association, said, "I don't know of a single community in Florida that doesn't have a shortage of milk right now."

"In order to save milk, dairy men are not making cottage cheese any more in Orlando and it is impossible to have it shipped in from Jacksonville due to lack of milk," Lee said.

"At present, every dairyman in Florida is trying hard to maintain normal deliveries, although some areas, particularly Clearwater, are resorting to voluntary rationing due to military demand."

He predicted the severity of the shortage would be determined by the military situation in Florida.

Miami and the Dade County area, West Palm Beach and Daytona Beach appeared to be exceptions to the general situation. Dairy men at all three places reported that supplies thus far have proved adequate although some curtailment of production of cottage cheese, heavy cream and ice cream was in prospect at West Palm Beach and Daytona Beach.

Not all Florida attractions are suffering as a result of travel restrictions. Newton Perry, manager of famous Wakulla Springs, reports he is doing a capacity business and advises advance reservations for those desiring accommodations at the Lodge. The resort is proving extremely popular with service men stationed in the area.

"At present, every dairyman in Florida is trying hard to maintain normal deliveries, although some areas, particularly Clearwater, are resorting to voluntary rationing due to military demand."

He predicted the severity of the shortage would be determined by the military situation in Florida.

Miami and the Dade County area, West Palm Beach and Daytona Beach appeared to be exceptions to the general situation.

What You Buy With WAR BONDS

A pelorus, used by the Navy, is a device which fits over the surface of a compass to enable the operator to take bearings on distant objects. It has split hair sights, has been in use for many years... and costs approximately $100.

These instruments are essential equipment to every American ship which comes out of the shipyards. With the scores of ships now being completed each month, we need many of these instruments. Your purchase of War Bonds and Stamps will help pay for them. Invest at least ten percent of your income every payday in these interest-bearing Government securities.
